

GEOFFREY TUMLIN

Geoffrey R. Tumlin is the Founder and CEO of Mouthpeace Consulting LLC, a communication consulting company, the President of On-Demand Leadership, a leadership development firm, and is the Founder and Board Chair of Critical Skills Nonprofit, a public charity that provides leadership and communication skills training to chronically underserved populations. Geoffrey holds a Ph.D. and an M.A. from the University of Texas at Austin, and a B.S. from West Point. Geoffrey has taught thousands of people about communication and leadership, and he has consulted with organizations like Shell Oil, Wyeth Pharmaceuticals, the Boston Scientific Corporation, Hibernia National Bank (now part of Capital One Bank), Reagan National Advertising, and the Honolulu Police Department.

Geoffrey is a Faculty Fellow in the RGK Center for Philanthropy and Community Service at the University of Texas at Austin, and a Cátedras Laboris Fellow at the University of Monterrey in Nuevo León, Mexico. Geoffrey received the Eyes of Texas Excellence Award in December 2010 for his work as the Assistant Director of the Center for Ethical Leadership at the University of Texas at Austin. He currently serves as Trustee of the Mark L. Knapp Award Endowment, the most prestigious interpersonal communication honor bestowed by the National Communication Association in recognition of career contributions to the academic study of interpersonal communication. Geoffrey's writing on leadership and communication has appeared in Discourse Studies, the International Leadership Journal, the Encyclopedia of Leadership, the Austin American-Statesman, and in five editions of Professional Communication Skills.

For appearance and teaching inquiries please contact:
Rebecca Henley, Director of Operations at tumlin.com, rebecca@tumlin.com

To contact Geoffrey Tumlin by email:
geoff@tumlin.com

To contact Geoffrey Tumlin by mail:
P.O. Box 202845, Austin, TX 78720-2845